HELEN MARTIN TO ORPHANAGE

Little Girl Leaves Hospital After 3 Months' Treatment for Eyes.

With a doll under her arm, a bank stuffed with pennies and a sack of lunch grasped in each hand, a little girl sat waiting for the 10:50 train Tuesday at the Wabash station. Her eyes missed nothing, and she wished to know each person who entered the station.

The little girl was Helen Martin, who for three months has made her home with the nurses of Parker Memorial Hospital while she has been receiving treatment for her eyes. She was being taken to the Children's Home Society in St. Louis by Philip Jamieson, a worker for the Institution. Mrs. J. D. Van Horn has taken a friendly interest in the little girl and has tried to place her in a home in Columbia. The Delta Gamm's serority provided new clothing for her. The little girl until three months ago lived with her grandmother. Mrs. William Davis.

EARLY PEACE NOT EXPECTED

Allied Generals Speak of 1918 Plans German Morale Bad.

By United Press WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES AFIELD, May 17. (by mail)-Unless the unexpected happens few here look for early peace.
